RE:

Dear

The Bank of China requests that we ensure the name of the actual paying organization matches the name of the invoice. If the invoice is incorrect, please provide us with the correction, and we will re-issue. Preferably, use the English name of your institution, or two languages.

Also please note that the Chinese Academy of Geological Sciences is currently acting as finance administrator, and its name must appear as the recipient of the funds for transfer purposes.

Sincerely,

Dong Shuwen
